

JAMIE PARSLEY

MEMORIAL FUTSKILZ SOCCER SCHOLARSHIP

One Futskilz player every 6 months will be awarded the
JAMIE PARSLEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
(December and June)

Jamie was 16, and a hardworking member of the Mockingbird '86 girls soccer team. She was tragically killed along with her boyfriend, Cory Stauble, on their way home from a movie on the evening of July 9th, 2002. Their car was hit head on, and burned after a drunk driver, who was 3 times the legal alcohol limit, crossed the median of Gene Snyder Expressway in Louisville, Ky. Jamie and Cory were only a few miles from their homes.

After further investigation, the driver was reported as having been served for 8 hours at a local TGI Fridays. The Parsley's were awarded $21 Million, the largest dram-shop settlement ever in U.S. History.

Jamie had a smile that could fill up a room, and the determination of a giant in her tiny 5 foot 1 inch frame....Not only was she a great kid and talented soccer player, but also a top candidate for Valedictorian and the National Merit Scholarship. Jamie was also well recognized in softball and field hockey for Kentucky Country Day School.

Jamie is greatly missed.

Criteria for award recipient are grades, attitude, commitment, fundraising, skill improvement, sportsmanship & soccer spirit. The recipient will receive 6 months of free training
